*Call to Worship (from Psalm 34)		Rev. Geitra Mickelson
I will bless the Lord at all times;
God's praise shall continually be in my mouth.
My soul makes its boast in the Lord;
let the humble hear and be glad.
Magnify the Lord with me,
and let us exalt God's name together.
O taste and see that the Lord is good;
happy are those who take refuge in Him.

Reception of New Member	Joan Auchter
Congregational Response:
We rejoice to recognize you as a member of Christ's holy church, and bid you welcome to this congregation of the United Methodist Church. With you we renew our vows to uphold it by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service, and our witness. With God's help we will so order our lives after the example of Christ that, surrounded by steadfast love, you may be established in the faith, and confirmed and strengthened in the way that leads to life eternal.
Anthem	Above the Voices of the World Around Me	Scott
	Chancel Choir; Jim Brice, solo
Old Testament Lesson	Genesis 25:29-34	Sereina De La Rosa
Once when Jacob was cooking a stew, Esau came in from the field, and he was famished. Esau said to Jacob, "Let me eat some of that red stuff, for I am famished!" (Therefore he was called Edom.) Jacob said, "First sell me your birthright." Esau said, "I am about to die; of what use is a birthright to me?" Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore to him and sold his birthright to Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank and rose and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Sermon	"Kitchen Nightmares: When Hunger Leads"	Rev. Matthew Smith
Affirmation of Faith	The Kitchen Creed	Rev. Matthew Smith
We believe in God, the Master Chef, who steps into the chaos of our kitchens and creates order, who takes what is spoiled and makes it whole, who feeds the hungry with grace and offers a seat to all at His table.
We believe in Jesus Christ, the Bread of Life, who tasted hunger, betrayal, and bitterness, yet served forgiveness to those who denied Him. He invites us to dine with Him, to be nourished by His love, and to share that feast with the world.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, who stirs within us new recipes of faith and hope, who purifies what poisons our hearts, and who fills our lives with the aroma of mercy and joy.
We believe we are called to guard our hearts, to feed our souls with what is good, and to join God in setting a table of healing and abundance for all people.
So we come to the table— to taste, to see, and to be transformed— for the banquet is ready, and all are welcome.

A Service of Word and Table

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor continues, and concludes...

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise Your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of Your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The pastor continues, and concludes...

And so, in remembrance of these Your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Invitation to Giving

As you come forward for communion, you are invited to bring your tithes and offerings and place them in the offering baskets.
