In February, we are honoring Black History Month with our music. Today's anthem is an arrangement of a traditional African-American spiritual. The offertory, Arietta, was written by English composer Samuel Coleridge-Taylor. Born in London in 1875, Coleridge-Taylor was a very successful composer in his lifetime and was known as the African Mahler.

Please join us in the fellowship hall across from the sanctuary for refreshments and conversation.

 Please stand as you are able for this act of worship.*

| A Service of Word and Table The Great Thanksgiving The Lord be with you. And also with you. | | |

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor continues, and concludes...

Therefore we praise You, joining our voices with choirs of angels with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all the faithful of every time and place who forever sing to the glory of Your name:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of Your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The pastor continues, and concludes...

With thanksgiving, we offer our very selves to You to be a living and holy sacrifice, dedicated to Your service.

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

The pastor continues, and concludes...

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are Yours, almighty God, now and forever. Amen.
