*Call to Worship (from Psalm 40) Rev. Geitra Mickelson
I waited for the Lord, who listened to my cry for help.
God lifted me out of a deep, dark place and set my feet on solid ground.
The Lord gave me a new song to sing, a song of praise to our God.
Many will see what God has done and put their trust in the Lord.
Come, let us worship the God who helps us, strengthens us, and fills our hearts with joy!
People: We come with thankful hearts, ready to praise our amazing God!

First Lesson Genesis 37:17b-24 Jane Moschenrose
So Joseph went after his brothers, and found them at Dothan. They saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them, they conspired to kill him. They said to one another, "Here comes this dreamer. Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; then we shall say that a wild animal has devoured him, and we shall see what will become of his dreams." But when Reuben heard it, he delivered him out of their hands, saying, "Let us not take his life." Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood; throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him" —that he might rescue him out of their hand and restore him to his father.

So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe, the long robe with sleeves that he wore; and they took him and threw him into a pit. The pit was empty; there was no water in it.

*Hymn When We Are Called to Sing Your Praise TFWS No. 2216

*Gospel Lesson Matthew 5:8-12 Jane Moschenrose
"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Pastoral Prayer and The Lord's Prayer Rev. Geitra Mickelson
Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

In February, we are honoring Black History Month with our music. Today's closing hymn, Do, Lord, Remember Me, is an African-American spiritual. Like many spirituals, this one has several variations. The version found in our hymnal is a four-voice arrangement by William Farley Smith, a researcher and restorer of African-American music and a composer and arranger for the 1989 edition of The United Methodist Hymnal.

 Please stand as you are able for this act of worship.*

Sermon	"The Pit"	Rev. Matthew Smith

A Service of Word and Table

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The pastor continues, and concludes...

Therefore we praise You, joining our voices with choirs of angels with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all the faithful of every time and place who forever sing to the glory of Your name:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of Your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The pastor continues, and concludes...

With thanksgiving, we offer our very selves to You to be a living and holy sacrifice, dedicated to Your service.

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

The pastor continues, and concludes...

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are Yours, almighty God, now and forever. Amen.
