*Call to Worship (from Hebrews 12:1-2) — Rev. Geitra Mickelson
From generation to generation, God's faithfulness endures.
We give thanks for the saints whose lives have shown us the way.
Today we remember their witness and give thanks for their faith.
May their example inspire us to run with perseverance the race before us.
Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith.
Together with all the saints, let us lift our hearts in praise and worship!

The Lord's Prayer
Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
Receiving the Bread and Cup
Communion Meditation — Pie Jesu from "Requiem" — Fauré, arr.Rawsthorne
Communion Hymn — For the Bread Which You Have Broken — Hymnal No. 614

As you come forward for communion, you are invited to write the name of a person who has passed away that has impacted your faith, whether that person is a saint from centuries ago or a family member that has passed away. Two can sign at a time.

There will be two communion stations, each of which will have gluten free.

*Closing Hymn — Hymn of Promise — Hymnal No. 707

*Benediction — Rev. Matthew Smith

*Benediction Response — Let Us Now Depart in Thy Peace — Hymnal No. 668

*Hymn — Open the Eyes of My Heart — W&S No. 3008

Gospel Lesson — Mark 10:13-16 — Alison Machmer
People were bringing children to him in order that he might touch them, and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, "Let the children come to me; do not stop them, for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it." And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.
